The June and July minutes were approved at the Board meeting and are posted on the website.

Treasurer's Report

The June and July reports were accepted at the Board meeting and are posted on the website.

Band - Peter Toews reported.

Band camp dates are August 13th to August 17th from 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., and August 20th to August 24th from 1:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. During the week of the 20th, the first half of the day will be used for sectionals. Section leaders will soon be painting the field, preparing it for practice! Pete would like to have one of the snacks each day donated. If you are willing to donate a snack, please contact Brooke Andersen at bruukie@hotmail.com.

The Marching Band will be playing the music of John Williams. With the new dance team, the band will look more collegiate this year than in the past. Their first performance will be Saturday, August 25th, as they will be marching in the Corn Roast Parade.

There will be a $30.00 camp fee ($10 for a t-shirt, $10 for meals, and $10 for camp expenses), due the first day of camp.

Brooke Andersen agreed to fill the Band Representative position this year.

Orchestra – Peter Toews reported.

Pete's looking forward to the year. He will have a report after the school year starts.

Choir – Phil Forman reported.

The 4th Annual Vocal Retreat is August 7-9. Six choir students are running the entire retreat this year.

Student Council has asked for the choir to sing the "Star Spangled Banner" at this year's Homecoming Assembly.

There will be a flat fee charged for costumes this year.

Choir has returned to Conrad Ball Middle School! Phil is going to try to incorporate the 7th and 8th-grade choirs into the March concert.

Theatre – Phil Forman reported.

A Christmas Carol will show December 7th and 8th. Flying by Foy will be coming to help students "fly" once again! The spring musical will be Side Show: The Musical. Audition materials are on the website. Auditions will be open to anyone wishing to watch them this year.

The second session of Tap Boot Camp took place last week. Approximately 30 students attended. The response to the Camp was awesome; the kids really enjoyed it. Phil said he hasn't seen this kind of enthusiasm for a long time. (This is in preparation for Side Show.)

Visual Arts

No report.

LISA

No report.

Fundraising

Debbie Pyles may not be able to coordinate the King Soopers fundraiser any more. Janet agreed to take it over if needed.

Mike and Lesa Ramirez presented a fundraising opportunity through Mountain Man. Discussion ensued about concessions and how MVMA can capitalize.

Old Business

None.

New Business

District Facilities has decided that salaries for sound and light engineers will not be paid for by the District anymore. This creates another huge hit to the budget.

The MVMA kick-off was discussed, with an outline of what needs to be presented and how. Mark is going to put together a Power Point presentation. If you have information to include please contact him in the next two weeks.

Closing

Because of Labor Day, the next meeting will be held on September 10th at 7:00 p.m. in the Choir Room.

Julie moved to adjourn, Terese seconded; meeting adjourned.
